Praise and Recommendations

“Peter Fenner has taken the refined deconstructive practices that have liberated ten of thousands of Asian contemplatives and adapted them for effective Western use.”—Robert Thurman, Buddhist Scholar, President of Tibet House in New York

“Peter Fenner has been working hard for many years on translating essential Dharma teachings into a modern secular language and format. He offers useful exercises for integrating the teachings into everyday life.”—John Welwood, author, *Toward a Psychology of Awakening

“Peter Fenner is remarkable. No matter what path you follow, the ability to move into the clarity and ease of pure nondual awareness is priceless. Peter transmits this experience through his very presence.”—Allan Combs, author, *The Radiance of Being

“Peter has the talent to present the most refined teachings of Tibetan Buddhism in a way that makes them directly accessible to the ordinary, worldly consciousness. His clear, concise and simple language comes from his inner experience, which is transmitted with sharpness, subtlety and sensitivity. His teaching comes from a living experience and not from second-hand theoretical knowledge.”—Jean-Marc Mantel, M.D., Psychiatrist, Vence, France

“Over the past several years I have had the opportunity to experience Peter Fenner's work. This has been fruitful for my dharma practice and understanding, as well as being thoroughly enjoyable. Peter's approach has shown itself to be useful for beginners as well as for more advanced practitioners. I heartily recommend his work as a complementary adjunct to meditation practice.”—Lama Palden Drolma, Sukhasiddhi Foundation

“I am very impressed with the psychospiritual work of Peter Fenner. His clear and quiet presence helps to deconstruct the subtlest concepts held dear to the ego in a way that is uniquely suited to the individual person.”—Sheila Krystal, Ph.D., Psychologist, Berkeley
