HANUMAN AND MAHARAJ-JI

I can't write about love, compassion, strength, or wisdom—all the qualities that Hanuman embodies—without feeling the presence of my Guru, Neem Karoli Baba. Maharaj-ji was considered to be an incarnation of Hanuman. He lived for the sake of his devotees. Every minute of every day, he worked tirelessly to relieve the suffering of those who came to him. He was also constantly immersed in the remembrance of the Name of Ram.

The following are stories from some of Maharaj-ji's devotees. The first is from one of his greatest old devotees, Dada Mukerjee.

One day in the early sixties, Baba-ji came out of his room and he looked like Hanuman. I had heard from so many devotees that Baba-ji was an incarnation of Hanuman, but Didi (my wife) and I still had our doubts. The next day, Maharaj-ji asked Didi to scratch his back. She found his body to be so bulky, so big, that she was actually perspiring while trying to reach her hand across his back.

In 1968, Didi did not go to Kainchi during the summer; she was in Allahabad with her mother, so I came alone. It was the day of the June 15th
